

RPAC Investment Guide

RPAC is our best defense against poorly-designed legislation that could negatively affect REALTORS®, our industry, and private property rights.

Thank you for supporting the REALTOR® Party!

RPAC DISCLAIMER

Contributions to Missouri REALTORS® PAC, Inc. (RPAC) are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Contributions are voluntary and are used for political purposes. The amounts indicated are merely guidelines and you may contribute more or less than the suggested amounts. The National Association of REALTORS® and its state and local associations will not favor or disadvantage any member because of the amount contributed or a decision not to contribute. You may refuse to contribute without reprisal. Your contribution is split between National RPAC and the State PAC in your state. Contact your State Association or PAC for information about the percentages of your contribution provided to National RPAC and to the State PAC.

The National RPAC portion is used to support federal candidates and is charged against your limits under 52 U.S.C. 30116.

RPAC may not accept contributions from corporations, associations or partnerships formed outside of chapters 347 to 360, RSMo, natural persons who are not United States citizens, foreign governments, foreign corporations other than foreign LLCs registered to do business in Missouri, other state political action committees, candidate committees, political party committees, campaign committees, exploratory committees, or debt service committees. Article VIII, Section 23.3(12) & (16). If you are investing in RPAC with a contribution from an LLC, that LLC must be registered with the Missouri Ethics Commission. Please go to mec.mo.gov/LLC/registration to create an account and register before contributing.
